

Afternoon Rally Ends Campus Chest Drive

A 1 p. m. rally in the Shack, will bring to a climax the week-long Campus Chest Drive. Gifts will be awarded to the winning candidates of the "Ugly Man—Cutest Pan" contest. The total amount collected during the campaign will be announced. A pep band will play for the rally.

As of Tuesday afternoon, approximately $210 had been collected. According to Charlie Platt, chairman of the drive, the total was "a little behind the quota," but heavy voting at the end of the week was expected to boost the amount.

Jack Fraenkel, Theta Chi and Connie Eade, Zeta Tau Alpha, were leading in the contest up to Wednesday noon. Other men vying for the "Ugly Man" title are Wayne Board, Lambda Chi; John Mitchell, ISA; Jim Dubois, Pi Kappa Alpha; Maynard Tatelman, Phi Epsilon Pi and Fred Shinnock, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Candidates for the "Cutest Pan" title are Joan Willey, Alpha Xi Delta; Mary Richardson, ISA; Carol Budatz, Sigma Kappa, and Louann Focht, Chi Omega.

Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity, is sponsor of the annual contest.

T. V. Smith Closes Affairs Institute Next Wednesday

The last speaker in the 1952 Institute on World Affairs will feature a return engagement for Thomas V. Smith. A professor of philosophy and citizenship at Syracuse

Smith ... education and politics.

University, Smith will lecture on "World Affairs in an Election Year."

The lecture will be next Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. in the auditorium.

A speaker at the 1950 Institute, Smith's speech is especially appropriate in that it will be given the day after the presidential election.

Smith has authored or co-authored more than 20 books. On one, "Foundations of Democracy," he wrote with Sen. Robert A. Taft. Smith's career has included work in politics and education. In 1926, he became associate editor of the International Journal of Ethics. Later, he was professor of philosophy at Texas University and the University of Chicago.

A political career in the Illinois Senate and Legislative Council led Smith to the United States Congress for the 1939 to '41 term.

Historian Lectures

A Midwestern historian, author and lecturer spoke at Omaha U. yesterday. Dr. Edward Everett Dale, former history department head at the University of Oklahoma, lectured on "The Romance of the Cow Country."

A former cowboy and rancher, Dr. Dale is an authority on the early cattle industry of the Great Plains.

No Gateway Tuesday

There will be no issue of the Gateway Tuesday. Announcements, meetings and social events which will be next week are covered in today's Gateway.

'Goodbye, My Fancy,' Starts Last Practices

The cast of "Goodbye, Fancy" will start the long train of dress rehearsals next week. The schedule for the past weeks has been one of intensive scene by scene, act by act rehearsals, to iron out rough spots in the performance.

The leads in the production are Mardell Squire, playing Woody; Barbara Zimmerman, as Agatha Reed; Bob Riggs, portraying Jim Merrill; Jack Frost, as Matt Cole, and Mary Cosford, playing Ginny Merrill.

Tickets are being sold in the Ticket office. Non-student admission is 75 cents. Students may secure a ticket by showing their activity card. Curtain time will be 8:15 p. m. next Friday and Saturday in the University auditorium. There will be no reserved seats for the performances.

Men Must Apply for Draft Exam

Tomorrow is the deadline for applications for the Selective Service College Qualification Test to be given Dec. 4.

Eligibility depends on the student's taking a full-time course; not having previously taken the test, and requesting deferment as a student.

Draft-eligible students can obtain test blanks at the local draft board. Completed tests are to be mailed to Educational Testing Service at Princeton, N. J.

Although another test will be given April 23, 1953, Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service head, emphasized that increasing manpower demands make it important that each draft-eligible student, who has not taken the test, do so as soon as possible.

Art Critic Will Speak Today

Eric Newton, noted art critic for the London Sunday Times, will speak this morning at a convocation in the auditorium at 9:30. Classes will follow a shortened schedule for the assembly. Newton's talk will be illustrated with slides of old and modern art works.

Newton will visit in art classes following the convocation, and will be honored at a noon luncheon. All students interested in meeting and talking with Newton, are invited to bring their lunches to the East Cafeteria.

Dean Jay MacGregor says that free milk and coffee will be served at the luncheon for all students attending.

The schedule will run as follows: 8:00-8:40, 8:45-9:25, convocation, 9:30-10:25, 10:30-11:10, 11:15-11:50.

OU 'Runners' Face 90-Mile Run To Deliver Football Game Ticket

Students Will Carry 'Birchbark' to Crete

By Burt McMillan

Do you know the world's record for the 90-mile run?

If you do, drop into the office of Omaha Mayor Glenn Cunningham and announce your information. Cunningham has accidentally "volunteered" OU students, alumni and faculty for a 90-mile track event—so we'd just as well try for the record.

Here is the background: Last week Cunningham invited Mayor Fred Kerst of Crete to the Homecoming football game. Part of the invitation included the phrase: "Say the word and they'll run the ticket down to you . . ."

Mayor Kerst replied that it would be in the finest tradition of the American Indians if they would "come afoot with their message of friendship"—an authentic birchbark ticket for a front-row seat at the game.

Route Planned

These two letters led up to just one thing: the ticket must be run the 90 miles to Crete.

An alumni committee met and laid out the route over seldom-traveled roads. The marathon will leave the Mayor's office at 9 a. m. next Friday, rain or shine. Various "runners" will carry the ticket, each carrying it one mile.

The plan calls for the halfway point being reached Friday night, and the trip completed Saturday. The halfway point is Otoe, Nebr.

Runners Needed

The route mapped out follows Center Street, then travels through Millard, Louisville and Weeping Water to Otoe. Saturday's route from Otoe will go through Syracuse, Roca and then into Crete.

Alumni Chairman Harold Poff has already sent out a call for ham radio operators to follow the "race." Students interested in running in the relay are urged to contact Howard Olson or Jane Hoff. These two students represent the Inter-fraternity Council and Independent Students Association.

Whaley Appoints New Commander

Cadet Capt. Alfred Kummer has been appointed Wing Commander by Maj. Robert E. Whaley, commandant of cadets. Kummer replaces Cadet Maj. Roger W. Cross as AF-ROTC head.

Inspector General duties go to Cadet 1st Lt. Ed Belgrade. Cadet Capt. Burton McMillan is Public Relations Officer, with Cadet 2nd Lt. Arch Templeton as deputy for special services.

Cadet 2nd Lt. John Jeter moves in as deputy for training. Cadet Capt. William Clark is in charge of officer training, with Cadet 1st Lt. Norman Long as head of NCO training.

Three OU Students Win Scholarships

Three University students were awarded special scholarships this week.

Glenn L. Zwart and Robert Rubenstein were recipients of the World-Herald Retailing Scholarships. The $100 awards were presented at a banquet at the University last night.

At a Tuesday night banquet, the Omaha Advertising Club awarded Howard Olson a $200 scholarship.

Debaters to Hold Invitational Meet

The Omaha University debate team will entertain representatives from a dozen colleges in Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota in the first annual fall debate tournament on the campus, Nov. 7 and 8.

This will be the first appearance of the team this fall. Try-outs for berths on the team were held Thursday and will be concluded today. J. D. Tyson is debate coach.

A briefing session will precede Friday debating. Tyson has arranged a debate between Whitney Young, head of the Urban League of Omaha, and John Clary, executive director of the Small Businessmen's Association.

Debate topic for this year is: Resolved: "That the Federal Government Should Enact a Compulsory F.E.P.C. Law."

"How Can We Most Effectively Combat Communism?" will be the question placed before the discussion groups.

'Sand' Copy Due

Tomorrow is the deadline for "Grain of Sand" contributions. Original essays, poems and short stories are being taken in Room 321B. Short stories must be 2,000 words or less.

Seniors Name Five Women for Princess

Omaha University will run a close second in campaigning during election week. Following close to the Nov. 4 national election is the campus queen election Nov. 5.

Five senior women will turn in petitions today by 3 p. m. for the title of Homecoming Princess. One will be selected Wednesday, Nov. 5 by the Omaha University student body to reign over the Homecoming dance and game, Nov. 14 and 15.

The candidates are Donna Edstrand, Chi Omega; Jane Hoff, Independents; Pat Johansson, Sigma Kappa; Charlotte Longville, Alpha Xi Delta, and Gloria Olderg, Zeta Tau Alpha.

The election of the Homecoming Princess will be from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. in the West Lounge. Student Council members are in charge of the election.

The Homecoming Princess will be presented at the intermission of the Homecoming Dance and will also be introduced during the halftime of the football game on Saturday with Doane College.

'New' Homecoming

Homecoming intermission plans headed the Student Council agenda at its meeting Friday.

Chairman reports revealed that the 1952 Grads day event will be entirely of an unusual nature. Facts are being withheld to insure its novelty.

Merlyn Fratt was appointed chairman of a committee to meet with a similar group from Creighton University to discuss methods to increase rivalry between the schools. Gary Luse and Ray Hampton were Council members included in the group.

Tentative plans establish two traveling trophies for basketball and baseball, respectively. If either team wins the prize three years in succession, the trophy becomes a permanent possession of the winner.

Show 'Informer' Today

The first feature film of the year will be shown today. "The Informer," a full-length film classic, is the first movie to be sponsored jointly by the English department and the Student Convocation Committee.

The movie will be shown at 1 and 3 p. m. in the auditorium.

Five Princess Hopefuls Vie For '52 Title

This year's quintet of candidates for the title of Homecoming Princess not only has beauty, but activities-plus, scholarship and leadership on campus. In the physical characteristic department, two of the senior women are blondes, one auburn, one brownette and one brunette.

Donna Edstrand, 5 ft. 7 in. English and Psychology major, counts Waokiya, Alpha Lambda Delta, and Angels Flight among her activities. This blue-eyed blonde is vice-president of Chi Omega, member of the Panhellenic Council, OUWI and Players. She was a Junior Class officer. For recreation, Donna likes dancing and eating "pizza."

Another Waokiya and Angel is Jane Hoff, president of the ISA. Jane is active in Feathers and was on the Inter-pep Council. The 5 ft. 3 in. senior was vice-president of the Regional ISA and leans toward sports and dancing of all kinds for her after-school activities. Jane has green eyes and auburn hair.

Another 5 ft. 3 in. senior candidate is Pat Johansson, president of Sigma Kappa sorority. Pat is vice-president of the Panhellenic Council and is a member of Feathers and the Home Economics Club. The brown-eyed, brunette is active in OUWI and counts as her favorite pastimes dancing and singing.

Blonde Charlotte Longville is active in Waokiya and sports. She is 5 ft. 5 in. tall and has green eyes. Her extracurricular time is divided among Angels, Flight, Future Teachers of America and Alpha Xi Delta. Charlotte was secretary of the Student Council and also claims dancing and eating as her favorite activities.

Another brown eyed, brown haired senior candidate is Gloria Olderog. She is 5 ft. 7 in. tall and is secretary of Zeta Tau Alpha. University Players and Waokiya take up much of Gloria's school activity time, but she also likes dancing and eating and Stan Kenton. Gloria is also a member of Alpha Kappa Delta, sociology club.

Eavesdropping...

Bozo, a dog from the Allied occupied area of Berlin, saw another dog, Svishlov, from the Soviet sector, crossing the boundary line.

Bozo trotted over to meet Svishlov to ask him how things were behind the Iron Curtain.

Svishlov reported that Communist dog houses were simply marvelous, having all the modern conveniences.

The Red dog also said that bones were bigger and juicier than anywhere else and that there were five female dogs for every male in his neighborhood.

"If conditions are so wonderful behind the Curtain, why do you come over here?" inquired Bozo.

"Well," replied Svishlov, "I've gotta bark once in awhile, don't I?"

Last Chance to Make Quota

Omaha University students continue their monetary search for the "Ugliest Man" on Campus as well as his feminine counterpart with the "Cutest Pan."

Beneficiary of the hunt is the Community Chest who will get the loot today.

Campaign gimmicks included helium filled balloons tied to extraneous ears, fingers and dog collars as well as shabbily dressed pledges.

Other attention-getting devices were exposed hairy legs, percussion group complete with barrels and buckets, and "blind" violin players.

One enterprising group sold worm ridden apples for as much as they could huckster for, while their pledges' noses were the locomotive power behind the peanuts on the shack floor.

Get Out the Vote . . .

"Get Out The Vote" is the campaign slogan for this year's general election. Needless to say, the election is Tuesday, Nov. 4.

There is a lot of meaning behind the slogan "Get Out The Vote." Primarily, it means do your part at the polls and cast your ballot. Let's just hope that this fall's student election is no indication of what will happen Tuesday.

However, there are two other important meanings behind the election slogan.

First, there is need for stress on the importance of voting on other issues besides the Presidential race. Whether you are for Stevenson or Eisenhower for President, it is also your duty and responsibility to vote intelligently on the so-called "secondary" issues.

As an example, do you realize that an amendment is before the voters which could affect Omaha U.—by raising the amount of the tax levy? This amendment would change the present automobile tax in Nebraska from the personal property category to that of license fees. If the amendment passes, the taxes would not increase, but the money would be changed to the fund from which Omaha U. draws its two-mill levy.

Another important factor in the election is the call beyond merely casting your ballot. It concerns donating a little of your time to make it possible for other citizens to cast their ballots. There are many groups which would welcome student aid as baby-sitters or as drivers to transport voters to polling places.

Since there will be no Gateway Tuesday, this is our last chance to remind you that casting an intelligent vote is the best method of exercising your democratic privilege.

"Get Out The Vote!"

Indians Meet Northern Illinois

Omaha Squad Seeks First Victory Over Illinois Rival

By Bob Peck

Seeking revenge and a winning record, the University of Omaha footballers travel to Dekalb, Ill., tomorrow afternoon to meet Northern Illinois State.

The Indians will be out to down the Illinois crew mainly for the three losses the Huskies have handed them for the past three seasons.

Last year, they spotted OU 20 points and then came roaring back to nip the Indians 27-26.

In 1950, the Omahans lost another heartbreaker, 25-27, to the Huskies.

OU Drubbed

In 1949, Northern Illinois dedicated their new stadium by drubbing OU, 27-8.

Omaha was not pressed to win last week over Knox College, and should be in top shape for the game with the Huskies. Only Indian not available for action is tackle Bob Jackson. Jackson aggravated a knee injury and is lost for the season.

Last week Northern beat Illinois 28-20, for their second win of the season. This gives them a tie for third place in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

League Champs

Last year, the Huskies were the league champions, winning all of their games.

Omaha's pass defense will get the game test tomorrow. Huskie quarterback McKinzie, senior end, is one of the leading pass catchers in the conference.

He has made 27 catches for a total of 472 yards. Three of his catches have been for touchdowns and the team scoring lead.

Coach "Chick" Evans' Huskies play a balanced running and passing game. Freshman Jim Harnes and Sophomore Billy Graham handle the quarterback post and do most of the passing.

The Cardinal and Black of Dekalb have four dangerous runners in Graham, Ed Bauer, Jack Pheanis and Ed Dierking.

Bauer is the team's leading ground gainer with 229 yards on 35 carries. This gives him 6.5 yards every time he carried the ball. Pheanis has garnered 197 yards, Graham 148 and Dierking 145.

Road Jinx

The Indians also will be trying to break their road game jinx. OU has suffered three setbacks on the road without a victory.

This, compared with their three wins on the home gridiron gives them a .500 mark for the season. A win tomorrow would not only break the jinx, but would also boost the Indians over the .500 mark.

Coach Lloyd Cardwell announced this week that Fullback Jerry Ziehe will co-captain the game with regular captain Larry Johnson.

Halfback Jerry Bahensky is expected to see lots of action.

The team left this morning and will return to Omaha Sunday night.

Christie Leads

With the completion of six games, Back Keith Christie is far out in front of his mates in total offense with 699 yards to his credit. Christie, OU's dangerous triple threat man, leads the Indians in six departments.

Aside from his bulge in the total offense department, "Chris" is tops in yards gained rushing with 324. He carried the ball 83 times for 381 yards, but lost 57 for the 324 mark. This gives him an average of just under four yards per carry.

Bob Schropp, who missed three games, vaulted into second place after the Knox game with 174 yards net gain. Schropp has toted the pigskin 35 times for a 5.2-yard average.

Aksel Schmidt is close on Schropp's heels for third place with 131 yards net gain to his credit. This gives him a 3.9 average on 34 carries.

Welling Second

Jerry Welling retained his hold on second place behind Christie in the total offense department last Saturday. Welling has totaled 358 yards, 340 on passes.

In yards passing, Christie holds a slight edge on Welling with a 35-yard lead, 375 to 340. Each has made three touchdown pitches.

The individual scoring race also sees Christie at the helm. He has three touchdowns to his name. This gives him a four-point lead over Schmidt, who has 12, and Jerry Tannahill, who has 12.

Welling, Jerry Ziehe, Bud Gibbons and Tony Roth each have scored once for the Indians.

Christie retained his lead in the punting department this week. Christie has booted 18 times for a total of 770 yards. This gives him an average of 42.8 yards per kick. Welling owns a 40.7 average for runner-up honors.

Mudra Takes Over As Papoose Coach

Darrell Mudra, standout athlete in high school and college play, is the new coach of the Papoose basketball team.

He was named to the post earlier this week and took over in that capacity immediately.

Mudra is a graduate of Omaha South High School and Peru State Teachers College of Peru, Nebraska. He earned three letters in basketball and football at South and seven numerals in the two sports at Peru.

At Peru, Mudra was twice named to the All-Nebraska College Conference football squad. He lettered in the grid sport during all four college years.

Last year the new Papoose mentor taught in the Omaha public school system. He also coached the Phillips midget football team during the past two seasons.

Aksel Schmidt, Jerry Welling ... prep for Northern Illinois.

From the Sports Desk Here Are the Facts!

The suggestion of lights for the Omaha U. football stadium is still gaining support. In fact, new facts have been brought out to give it added impetus.

Last Saturday, the largest crowd in many years watched the OU-Knox College game. The total of 2,800 fans almost equalled the total attendance for the first two home games. The first contest drew 1,800 fans, and the second one 1,200, including the bands from Omaha high schools. It is important to note that the Knox game was the first contest this season which was not played at OU on a Saturday when Nebraska was also playing at home.

What do these facts prove? They show that when one of the primary conflicts with Omaha football is removed, the fans will turn out for the games. And, if OU's games were played at night, this conflict would be removed, at least in part.

Receive Estimates

On the cost of the lights, Athletic Director Virgil Yelkin has received estimates on three various lighting plans. The plan which would give OU the barest possible lighting would cost about $2,500. An intermediate plan would cost about $4,500. Lighting similar to the caliber employed at the Municipal Stadium would cost in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Runners to Uphold Omaha U. Honor

Stout-hearted men! Are you willing to run the last mile for your University? Devotion to the Omaha Indians and a chance to participate in the most strenuous publicity stunt in the history of the University is yours—if you fill the following requirements:

1. Are you a member of the faculty, student body or the Alumni Association?
2. Can run one mile in 12 minutes?
3. Sign up for the ninety-mile marathon to Doane at 12:30 Monday afternoon in the Fieldhouse.

The purpose of the track event is to deliver, by Indian courier, a birchbark invitation for Omaha University's Homecoming festivities, to Mayor Fred Kerst of Crete, Nebraska. Ninety men will be signed up for the running, which is expected to take two days. Otoo, Nebraska, will be the halfway mark.

Considering age and the "life of Riley" that many of the OU men have been experiencing, an ambulance will follow close on the heels of the Indian footmen.

Under the latter plan here would be sufficient candle power to light the field as well as OU will ever need. This plan also assures that there would be no poles between the stands and the field. These lights would be of the type used at the Stadium, but the Indian field would not need half of the candle power needed at Muny Stadium.

Now comes the question of how the money for these lights could be raised. Under present conditions, the money would have to come directly from the University's building fund. This could mean that the building of the Student Union or library might be forestalled.

Another Plan Probable

However, another plan of obtaining the money would be through an all-out campaign on the sale of season tickets for next season. If the Board of Regents would designate the money from such a drive to be put into the buying of tickets, a great portion of the cost could be raised in this way.

Another possible financing plan would be for the alumni to put on a fund-raising project of some type. This plan, however, also requires Regents' approval, since there is a rule forbidding fund-raising activities by any University organizations.

Answers to six of the 17 letters sent to college business managers have been received. And all six infer that night football would improve OU crowds greatly.

One letter said that, although opinions were not solicited, he would say that crowds would at least double if the games were played under the lights.

Express Opinions

Two letters expressed this opinion: "Many of our supporters work afternoons, and big-time football as televised and radioed, keeping many people away from afternoon games. However," the letter added, "many people doubt the wisdom of having exclusively night games" due to the weather factor.

A fourth school, a Nebraska college, installed new lights this fall. And a letter from this school stated that "you might be interested in the fact that downtown people voluntarily donated money without solicitation. And, I understand that at present, this fund equals almost half of the cost of the new lights."

While on the subject of letters on the lighting situation, it should be mentioned that three letters asking for night football have been received by and printed in the Gateway.

Also, a petition asking for lights for the stadium is in circulation and at present bears over 800 signatures of Omaha students.

Blackhawks Win Over Theta Chi

Starting the fourth week of intramural football, Blackhawks rolled to an 18-6 win over Theta Chi Monday afternoon. In Tuesday's contest, the Phi Eps, who have dropped from league play, forfeited to ROTC.

It was the pitching arm of Nick Adzick that gave the Blackhawks the victory as he found the mark on three passes, all going for TD's.

In the first half, Adzick found Ralph Pettit for a 50-yard aerial and the tally. After the touchdown, both teams showed a strong defense and stopped the opposition from scoring for the rest of the half.

After the rest period, the Blackhawks rolled for two more touchdowns as the Adzick-to-Pettit combination again connected on long passes for the two tallies.

Theft of a Blackhawk lateral gave Theta Chi their lone tally in the second half. The Blackhawks tried a lateral after they had intercepted Chuck Carter's pass. But, Keith Logsdon grabbed the ball and ran for the Theta Chi TD.

This afternoon's contest will see the Blackhawks and Sig Eps replaying the game that was decided "no contest" by the intramural council in their meeting last Friday afternoon. Also today, Pi Kappa Alpha will play the Independents.

Monday afternoon, Theta Chi is scheduled to play the Phi Eps, but the game will go to Theta Chi by forfeit.

PE Majors Elect Officers for Year

At a meeting Monday afternoon in the Fieldhouse locker room, the Physical Education Majors Club elected officers for the 1952-53 school year.

Football Captain Larry Johnson was named to head the group as president. Jim Spencer is the new vice-president, while John Swanson and Charles Phillips are secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Thirty members have enrolled in the club, with at least twenty more students on the prospective membership list. The organization is open to all PE majors and minors.

The group is working toward membership in the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. By becoming a member of the national organization, the club also will become affiliated with the Nebraska Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Plans also are being made for an extensive list of activities for the coming year.

This will be the group's first full year on campus. It was begun last spring. Tom Brock, head of the physical education department, is the group's sponsor.

AF-ROTC Riflemen Lose Opening Match

Omaha U's AF-ROTC rifle team lost its first match Wednesday, as Nebraska U. edged out a win by 57 points. High man for the OU team was Cadet Capt. Frank Sedlacek, who had a score of 268 out of a possible 300 points.

Other cadets making the trip to Lincoln were Darrell Cox, Gilbert Davis, Robert Forrey, Glen Gowen, Donald Olson, Donald Schroder, James Ryan, Fred McCormick, Alan Conser and Samuel Georges. Team coach is M-Sgt. William Swink.

The OU team will take part in the eight-team Intercity Rifle League. The league schedule starts Nov. 17.

Rogers Takes Crown

Marilyn Rogers defeated Carole Nygaard in the Omaha University Women's Intramural tennis tournament finals on the OU courts Wednesday morning.

A social hour meeting for all OUWI members will be held in the women's physical education hut Tuesday, Nov. 11, from 5 to 6:30 p. m. Games will follow the business meeting during the social hour.

In the Spotlight . . . Senior Bob Rose Letters Eight Times in Two Sports

Cast in this issue's "Spotlight" is Bob Rose, varsity end on the OU grid team. The tall lanky senior is working for his fourth varsity letter this season in the fall sport.

Rose earned his first letter in the rugged sport during the '49 season when he played on the varsity as a frost. So this season will see Bob completing his fourth year as a wingman on the OU eleven. During the 1950 season Rose caught three touchdown passes, while fans last season saw Bob catching two touchdown aeri-

als. In the winter Rose will turn his attentions indoors where he will start his fourth year of varsity basketball. This season Bob will be gunning for his fourth letter in the hardwood sport. He earned his first letter during his freshman year when he saw action as a forward.

The last two seasons Rose has captured the high scoring laurels. In the 1950-'51 season Rose scored 213 points, and during last year he threw in a total of 261 to gain the high scoring honors two years in a row.

Last year Rose's torrid scoring hit a climax when he set a record by dunking 29 points against Peru. As a reward for his playing during the past three years Rose was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy last year.

In high school Bob was a four letter man in basketball and football at Boys Town. His senior year he quarterbacked the Boys Town eleven to one of its best seasons.

Rose is a physical education major and when he graduates in June, he hopes to land a coaching job.

Pledges 'Honor' Actives At Annual Dance Tonight

Haddad to Play For Greek Affair

The annual all-Greek pledge dance will be held tonight at Peony Park from 9 to 12 p. m. Eddy Haddad will play for the event.

Decorations will be in black and white, with streamers, balloons and a black circle on each pillar with the Greek letters of individual fraternities on a chain hanging from it. The entrance to the Ballroom will be decorated as the entrance to a prison.

The skit will be called the "Ball and Chain" and will be given during intermission. Those in the skit are Dick Rentschler, Connie Jacobsen, Dorothy Traynor, Ila Jorgenson, Ginger Maxwell, Charles Stillwell, Charlie Martinson, Bill Barnes, Bob Barnes, Mary Little, Marianne Bowley, Pat Kavan, Gloria Zadina and Jay Lashinsky. Master of ceremonies will be Gene Anderson.

Rae Johnson and Dean Short are chairman of the dance. Other committees are Connie Eade and Marianne Bowley, decorations; Bob Buckler and Larry Means, pianos; Bob Ackerman and Hal Snyder, props, and Marie Strenger, Carol Budatz and Mary Biglia, sets.

Barbara Day, Marilyn Johnson and Stan Plotkin will handle costumes. Pledge writers are Mary Little, Shirley Kurtz, Dean Short, Pat Kavan, Jo Ann Sedlacek, Connie Jacobsen and Hal Snyder.

Sponsors for the "Ball and Chain" will include a faculty advisor from each organization. The sponsors will be Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourn Janacek, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Harper. The pledge council invites all faculty members to the informal pledge dance.

Pledges Skip, Actives Search

Lambda Chi Alpha pledges skipped from active members at their meeting Monday night. The pledges hid at the Crown Rubber Products Plant in Ralston from 7 to 11 p. m.

The actives got the first clue from Richard Brewer, music instructor, at 8 p. m. at the university. The clue was a key to a locker at the airport. Within the locker was a tape recorder which told the actives to proceed to a hole on the Field Club golf course.

After finding the clue on the golf course, actives were led to the home of J. D. Tyson, a sponsor of Lambda Chi fraternity. The next clue was a key and a line in a jar of vaseline at Blackburn Pharmacy which revealed that the following clue was at the Keeline Building.

Clues also were planted by the pledges at Mormon Park and Turner Park. The last clue told the exact whereabouts of the pledges, but the actives were too late to catch their pledges.

Assistant Dean of Students Don Pfisterer gave permission to pledges to skip outside of the city limits of Omaha if the last clue revealed the exact hiding place.

Press Club Chooses Officers at Meeting

The newly formed Press Club had its first meeting on Oct. 22.

Election of officers was held. Frank Schuchart is president; Bill Beindorf, vice-president, and Joyce Erdkamp, secretary-treasurer. Committees also were formed for writing the constitution and for membership. Lorrie Lemen, Jim Duggan and Pat Nolan comprise the membership committee. Those helping on the constitution committee are Mary Ann Conley, Jerry Kelley, Bob Rasmussen and Bob Kragh.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday at 8:00 in Room 100. Those interested in journalism are invited to attend.

Phi Epsilon Pi Pledges Skip, Foil Actives Saturday Night

The pledges of Phi Epsilon Pi spent their skip night in the luxury of a suite of rooms at the Blackstone Hotel last Saturday night.

Actives started on the hunt at 9:30. The Hayden House gave them their first clue after first selling them a few choice steaks. The second clue was found in a piano at the Jewish Community Center. Next they had to deliver oranges to the University. Having delivered them, the actives traveled to the drill field fence. There a clue written in Russian stumped them.

At eleven they went to get the runaways at the Blackstone. The rest of the evening was spent at Stan Plotkin's home, where pledges served food for the actives.

Freshman Honorary Initiates Five Women

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honor society, received five new members Wednesday. At the third meeting of the year, the following girls were initiated: Delores Gerdes, Sharon Erdkamp, Pat Nolan, Suzanne Bengston and Elizabeth Nelson.

The 1952 Homecoming dance will be held Nov. 14 at the Peony Park Ballroom. Ralph Marterle and his orchestra will play for the all-school dance.

The ballroom will be decorated in gold and brown. The Homecoming committee will take over the Bookstore window on Nov. 9.

Couples will be admitted by activity cards. Synthia Judd is in charge of the dance and Phyllis Wilke is in charge of decorations.

Cold Winds Bring New Winter Coats

by Lorrie Lemen

With the coming of old man winter, fellows and gals alike have to start thinking about warm winter coats.

This winter, as in the past, storm coats are seen as the most popular of all winter apparel. These storm coats can be found in a variety of colors from black to green. The warm fur collars help to keep out the winter winds.

For walking through snow and for keeping feet warm, another popular "must" is stadium boots. These, too, may be found in various colors and topped with fur. They are zipped down the front for easier use. Together the storm coat and boots make a warm and pretty outfit.
